PROFESSOR OF THE YEAR MICHAEL BRADFORD COENEN

LSU Law professor Michael Bradford Coenen was voted Professor of the Year by the Law Center Class of 2018. This year's award marks the second time he has been named Professor of the Year in four years.

Coenen has been a faculty member at LSU since 2013. He teaches and writes in the areas of constitutional law, federal courts, criminal procedure, and administrative law.

Besides an extensive knowledge of the subject matter he teaches, the students of the Law Center consider Coenen to be an engaging, encouraging, and thought-provoking professor. When asked why he/she voted for Coenen, one student responded, "Professor Coenen could not be more deserving of this award. He makes learning the law fun and entertaining, which is no easy feat. From his ridiculous hypotheticals to our wide-ranging discussions, his lectures are always memorable."

Before joining LSU Law, Coenen served as a Climenko Fellow and Lecturer on Law at Harvard Law School. He holds an A.B. in Music from Princeton University, where he graduated summa cum laude, and a J.D. from Yale Law School, where he was an Articles Editor for the Yale Law Journal. After graduating from law school, he clerked for Judge Guido Calabresi of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

HONORARY INDUCTEE

KEITH B. HALL

Keith B. Hall is Director of the Mineral Law Institute and the Campanile Charities Professor of Energy Law. He teaches Mineral Rights, Advanced Mineral Law, International Petroleum Transactions, and an Energy Law Seminar that focuses on environmental issues relating to energy industries.

His publications have focused on oil and gas leases, pooling and unitization, hydraulic fracturing, induced seismicity, and the management of produced water. He is a frequent speaker at national and international oil and gas, energy, and environmental law conferences.

Before joining the LSU Law Center, he was a member of the firm Stone Pigman Walther Wittmann in New Orleans, where he practiced law for 16 years, with a focus on oil and gas litigation and transactions, environmental law, and toxic tort litigation.

Hall is a member of the Board of Editors for the Oil & Gas Reporter, the Board of Trustees for the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation, the Advisory Council for the Institute for Energy Law, and the Board of Trustees for the Energy & Mineral Law Foundation. He is a former Chair of the Louisiana State Bar Association's Environmental Law Section and former Chair of the Oil & Gas Committee of the ABA Section of Environment, Energy and Resources. He serves on the Louisiana Law Institute's Water Law Committee and is a registered professional engineer.
